TROPICANNA™

‘Your Garden’ magazine

Council approval for front garden design and estate regulations saw landscape designer Georgina Martyn pull out all the stops to create a garden masterpiece in a new estate.”

“... Sometimes a certain foliage colour in the right spot will make the entire space feel right.”

With this in mind Georgina chose a mass planting of Tropicanna™ as a fence-line backdrop to a sandstone paved area; creating a bold wall of colour which shows off Tropicanna’s magnificent foliage to perfection.
