It's Official - Roses are tough!

Burkes Backyard - June issue has a fantastic 14 page rose special, titled “Drought Busting Roses”

“Good news! Roses are one of the most sensible and practical plants you can grow. The drought proved it – look around at what has survived and you’ll see roses galore thriving.”

Flower Carpet features prominently in this article:

- ...a spectacular display
-almost ever-blooming
- can be used as a border or hedge
- are ideal choices for containers
- Flower Carpet roses are ideal for massing
- Flower Carpet are best known for their disease resistance, fast growth and ease of care

Numerous Flower Carpet images accompany the story

This is a great endorsement for Flower Carpet – Nursery staff use this to your advantage.
